

SWEET POTATOES
ARE CORNEREDCalifornia Trust Controls Practically the Entire Output.

CROPS ARE GATHERED IN

ONLY LIMITED SUPPLY OF DUCKS REACH MARKET.

The California Sweet Potato Growers' association has practically cornered the output of the crop in that state this season and is dictating the prices throughout the west. This trust has affected the prices on the Salt Lake market considerably, and the dealers look for another raise in a short time. At present the commission house dealers are asking 34 cents a pound and the retail dealers are selling them for 40 cents a pound. This is somewhat higher than the prices were last year. The association controls about 95 per cent of the crop. Those raised in the south lack the flavor of the California product and many are shipped to the west. Pumpkins and squash are tumbling in fast and the dealers are having a great run on them. Winter vegetables are also to be had at reasonable prices. Winter pears and apples are stacking up the market, but the prices are steady and the crop is moving in good shape.

The fish and poultry markets were well supplied yesterday with varied assortment and trading was active. The dealers did not have half enough ducks to supply their customers. Only small shipments came in and they were soon disposed of. The demand for orders is growing heavier. The dealers are now able to handle the trade.

HAYMEYER HERE TONIGHT

Sugar King Expected to Arrive After Inspection Trip in Idaho in Company With T. R. Cutler.

H. O. Havemeyer, president of the American Refining Co., "the sugar king," will arrive in Salt Lake City probably this evening, after a trip of inspection in Colorado for several weeks, was joined at Ogden yesterday morning by T. R. Cutler, president of the Idaho Sugar company, and together they left for the Gen. State. They expected to be at Sugar City last night. It is understood that Mr. Havemeyer plans to be present at the stop at the Knutsford hotel.

Since 1891 H. O. Havemeyer has been president of the American Sugar Refining Co., better known as the "Sugar Trust." His visit here is of especial interest owing to the fact that many western sugar growers are anxiously awaiting action of congress on reduced sugar cane tariff between this country and new possessions.

SNOW NOT DUE.

So Says Weather Man in Defiance of "Signs" and Popular Opinion.

"It simply can't snow" was the statement made at the weather bureau last evening when the query was made if Salt Lake was not due for a fall of the beautiful.

All afternoon the comment on the street was, "Snow's due tonight, all right."

The weather man, however, in defiance of chill breezes, white skies and popular opinion gave his den to the snow man.

"Conditions aren't right," was his explanation of the prophecy. "This observation does not extend, of course beyond forty-eight hours."

WOODMEN, ATTENTION.

Members of 333 and their ladies and friends are invited to be present at an entertainment given by the camp on Wednesday evening October 18th, in K. of P. hall at 8 o'clock, on which occasion State Organizer Turner will lecture on "Old Line vs. Franchise Insurance." TECHNICAL POINT RAISED

Effort to Save the Necks of California Murderers.

San Francisco, Oct. 14.—Taking advantage of an amendment to the penal code, adopted at the last session of the legislature, attorneys representing Chilton Bower, held for the murder of William S. Stephenson, a Nevada stockman, and John A. Logan Bell, who shot and killed his stepfather, made a preliminary move before Judge Lawlor today to prevent the trial of their clients. It is alleged that in neither case was the new law, providing that a judge who holds a man charged with crime must sign the original complaint as a "presiding magistrate," complied with. The judges are said to have followed the custom of affixing their signatures simply as "judges" to a fly leaf covering all the papers in the case. This action, it is asserted, makes the commitments void. Judge Lawlor took the novel point presented under advisement.

PINKERTON'S STORY.

Pat Crowe Accused of Several Devil-ish Schemes.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—William A. Pinkerton declared today that Pat Crowe, the alleged kidnaper of Eddie Cudahy, Jr., was suspected of complicity in a well organized plot to kidnap and hold for $50,000 ransom the child of a prominent New York railroad magnate. The name of the magnate was refused by Mr. Pinkerton, but he considered the plot of sufficient importance to notify the railroad man.

The Cudahy kidnapping at Omaha occurred several weeks after the New York plot was discovered, and as the plan followed there was along exactly similar lines, Crowe's name was never entirely removed from the investigation. According to Pinkerton, investigation tended to show that Crowe had intended also to assassinate General Counsel O. M. Spencer of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad at St. Joseph, Mo., and then kidnap a member of Judge Spencer's family.

MADE NO RETURNS.

Charge Brought Against Widow of Abner McKinley.

Somerset, Pa., Oct. 14.—A. F. Kennedy of New York City filed exceptions today to the account of Mrs. Annie E. McKinley, executrix of the estate of the late president's brother.

Mrs. Kennedy alleged that about $80,000, representing life insurance policies on the late Abner McKinley, has not been accounted for by the executrix and Abner's share of the estate of the late President McKinley, amounting to $60,000 or $80,000, has not been divided among the creditors.

The Ladies' Literary Club.

Friday's programme at the Ladies' Literary club was in the hands of the home and education section of the club, and the two speakers of the afternoon undevoted to show what the section had done and what line of work could properly be undertaken by them to help in the general uplift of the public in lines of health and civic improvement. Mrs. William C. Jennings, who has been identified with the section from its beginning, and a former president of the club, presented the past practical work of the section, speaking first of the various lines of improvement undertaken by the club as a whole before it was divided into sections. She reviewed the work for the public library; then the Pioneer library, and spoke highly of the efforts of the older club women along lines of charity during the financial panics of past years. Speaking of the work of the present section, she reviewed the many efforts, most of them successful, of the section to establish helpful influences around the youth of the city. The section has in the past few years inaugurated the early shopping movement, which is to be revived this year; given $6 to the night school; assisted the juvenile court; worked for the enforcement of the curfew law; secured the promise of a covered patrol wagon; inaugurated the clean city movement; secured the passage of the anti-expectoration ordinance; secured rubbish cans; got the ordinance against weeds passed; and secured the services of two lecturers along this line to give free lectures to the public. The section will send a report of the work accomplished to the convention of the National Civic association, which meets during the present month in Cleveland, O. Mrs. Jennings' talk was illustrated by a series of stereoscopic views, showing pictures of the model corridors decorated by the section, and also some cuts of the various works of art in detail placed there. The stereoscopic and many of the views were loaned by the courtesy of Professor Byron Cummings, and the slides of the corridor were made for the section by R. H. Officer, some of the plates having been loaned by the courtesy of Harry Shipley.

Dr. T. B. Beatty gave a talk on the preservation of public health, illustrating his subject with stereoscopic views of bacteria of the various preventable diseases, and urging the women to maintain their efforts for public cleanliness and public health.

The business of the hour the topic to have been given by Mrs. A. J. Gorham was dispensed with and a social hour followed. The music of the afternoon was furnished by Miss Dwyer, who sang "Song of My Heart" and "The River and the Sea." Mrs. Graham P. Putnam playing the accompaniment.
